Chris,

Jeff Sutton just spoke with Christiane Routt and also met with Norm Adkins, so here's what we know:

- When we were told "it" was on hold, that meant on hold from release; today we were told it is "OK" to finish preparing the response;
- Norm let us know today that we will need to provide the statutory authority for all our redactions. Two of our staff, Jaimie Graff and Maria Hoopes, will start working on this right away; it will be tedious, but should only take a few days.
- Jaimie will transfer all the video to a hard drive.
- Once the redactions are complete and the videos copied to the hard drive, everything can be loaded into the new portal.
- From there we've done our part, and it's someone else's (perhaps OGC) decision regarding the timing of release.

Hope this helps.
